LIBERTY-PITTSBURGH SYSTEMS, INC. CEO SELECTED FOR FABRICARE FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PITTSBURGH, PA – JANUARY 22, 2007 – Kevin Weir, CEO of Liberty-Pittsburgh Systems, Inc., leading manufacturer of dry cleaning tags and forms, has been asked to serve on the Board of Directors for the Fabricare Foundation.

Established as a non-profit organization, the Fabricare Foundation leads the growth and future of the dry cleaning industry and its professionals through public relations, research and education. FabriCare Foundation provides industry professionals with:

- Information about consumer opinions, behavior and understanding of our industry
- Educational opportunities for leadership, management and employee training
- Insights and solutions to current and future workforce and technology issues

As CEO of Liberty-Pittsburgh Systems, Mr. Weir is responsible for the management, growth, and success of the company's overall business operations. Mr. Weir feels that his appointment on the board is very complimentary to the efforts of Liberty-Pittsburgh Systems and the respect that the dry cleaning and laundry industry has for the company. In addition, he states, "I am honored and pleased to be appointed to the Board of Directors of the Fabricare Foundation. I believe the Foundation offers our industry the best opportunity to communicate the value of professional cleaning to the consuming public. If we can engage every manufacturer and supplier, distributor and cleaner to support the efforts of the Fabricare Foundation, we can come together as a cohesive industry speaking with a single voice. Most everyone will recall how well this was done for milk, beef, cotton and the incredible egg."
